

Clothing & Equipment List:

---

Your days at Camp Ondessonk will be active ones; you will be outside most of the day, rain or shine, hot or cold, and getting wet or dirty is a definite possibility. The following is an idea of what to bring or wear while you are here, and what to leave at home. The clothing you bring to Camp will get dirty, so please leave expensive or designer clothes at home. All clothing and other personal items should be labeled with your name. A large duffel bag, pillowcase, or garbage sack will serve as a "suitcase." Bedding should be rolled tightly and tied securely.

Clothing and Bedding:

Sleeping bag or a 2-blanket roll with sheet, pillow, and extra blanket

Waterproof rain coat or poncho

Change of clothes for each day you are here: socks, underwear, t-shirt, shorts/pants, etc.

Long pants required if horseback riding

2 pair shoes; one to keep clean and dry, the other to destroy

Close-toed shoes required for most activities

Cold weather: mittens/gloves, hat that covers ears, wool socks, scarf, long underwear, sweaters, heavy coat

Other Necessities:

Water Bottles

Toiletries

Extra towels for showers

Large bag for dirty laundry

Sunscreen

Insect repellent

Flashlight or headlamp

Good-To-Have Items:

Camera

Journal

Compass/GPS

Field guides

Binoculars

Fishing pole

Bug netting

Money for Trading Post (please keep safe while you are here)

Please Refrain From Bringing:

Knives

Fireworks.

Electronic devices of any kind: cell phones, games, tablets, mp3 players, etc.

Food, snacks, candy, etc.

Please leave other valuables at home
